PREFACE.

THE Committee appointed by the Government for the representation of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope at the Colonial and Indian Exhibition having requested the Compilers to prepare a general Catalogue of Books relating to South Africa, the present compilation is the result.

The Compilers do not claim that the Catalogue is by any means complete; they are aware that many important additions may be made to it, by reference to European Libraries. But they present it as the first general enumeration of Books having a special interest as containing information regarding the Cape of Good Hope and that portion of the African Continent south of the Zambezi River.

The Catalogue does not include Collections of Voyages and Travels, such as Purchas's, Astley's, Churchill's, Dalrymple's, Dampier's, Eyrie's, Hakluyt's, Harris', Kerr's, La Harpes', Du Quesne's, Pinkerton's, Cook's, Pfeiffer's and others, in which references to the Cape of Good Hope will be found. Neither does it contain a list of the Parliamentary papers and Blue-books relating to South Africa, printed by order of the Imperial or Colonial Governments. These would have greatly extended its limits, and indeed demand a Catalogue of themselves.

Nor have the Compilers embraced in this list the numerous, valuable, curious, and too often scarce, Pamphlets, which have been published relative to South Africa and its affairs. These alone would form a Catalogue larger than the present one. A list, almost as complete as it is possible to compile, however, has been made by Mr. Fairbridge, and if sufficient interest is manifested in its publication, the Manuscript may be placed in the printer's hands for that purpose.

The Compilers have been content, for the present, with an enumeration of General Works relating to South Africa, most of which are to be found in the Colony, either in the South African Public Library, Cape Town; or in the private Collection of Mr. Fairbridge, Sea Point.

At some future time, they hope to supplement this Catalogue; and will therefore be happy to receive any corrections or additions that may be sent to them.

Cape Town, March, 1886.
